Student rotations at UWM entities are being suspended until further notice to support social distancing guidelines.

The three exceptions below are from areas who have identified their students as having critical roles in patient care (without their presence patient care would be adversely impacted).

- Spiritual care (night coverage only)
- Respiratory therapy
- Pharmacy
- Laboratory

Any further exceptions to the above must be coordinated and approved by the entity CEO/Executive Director for approval.